HELP SUSTAIN OUR SPIRITUAL HOME

As our parish relies heavily on cash and envelope tithing, please help us sustain our spiritual home by enrolling in electronic giving.

Please scan the code to get started!

Our Mission: We, the parish community of Mary Queen of Heaven, are called to live and proclaim the Good News of Jesus Christ to all with whom we come into contact. We are committed to being a vibrant and welcoming community of faith by worshiping God through prayer and sacrament, teaching and sharing our faith, and serving others as Jesus did. We seek to become a faith community that invites people of all races and cultures to become part of our parish family.

THE SHEPHERD'S VOICE

Dear Parishioners,

We realize that Our Lord, in response to the question about the greatest of the commandments, selected two mandates from the Old Testament, the first (Deuteronomy 6, 4) very well known, taken from the "Shema" which devout Jews prayed every morning, and the second less familiar from Leviticus 19, 18. What was original in this answer was that Jesus presented them as equally important.

You might wonder why our treatment of others, especially the aliens, orphans, widows, and neighbors in need mentioned in our reading from Exodus would weigh so heavily in God's eyes. But what father doesn't judge your love for him on how you respond to the children of his heart?

Love, biblical love, is not romance or emotion; it is very definitely a decision of the will to seek the well-being of the other. To love one's neighbor is to love someone God himself loves as a son or daughter.

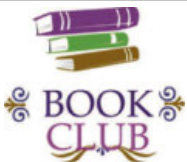

A journalist was touring Ronald Reagan's beloved ranch in California and he wondered how Nancy would have taken to life there. His guide informed him: "She loved it because he loved it, and she loved him." In the final analysis that is the explanation for the second clause of the Great Commandment: we love our neighbors because God loves them, and we love God!

*In the Good Shepherd,
Father Tom*
