30TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Jesus said to him in reply, "What do you want me to do for you?"
The blind man replied to him, "Master, I want to see." Jesus told him, "Go your way; your faith has saved you." Immediately he received his sight and followed him on the way. - Mk 10:51-52

Our Mission: We, the parish community of Mary Queen of Heaven, are called to live and proclaim the Good News of Jesus Christ to all with whom we come into contact. We are committed to being a vibrant and welcoming community of faith by worshiping God through prayer and sacrament, teaching and sharing our faith, and serving others as Jesus did. We seek to become a faith community that invites people of all races and cultures to become part of our parish family.

THE SHEPHERD'S VOICE

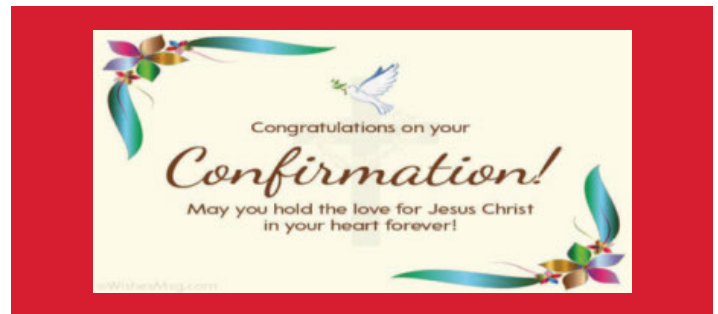

Dear Parishioners,

As I have studied and prayed over this gospel through the years, it has become one of my favorites. In his miracle stories St. Mark tends to provide us with more pertinent details than the other synoptic evangelists, information I believe he got from St. Peter. That really makes his accounts come alive.

Let me suggest one of those details to you. As soon as Jesus called for Bartimaeus, we are told that he flung his cloak aside in order to take advantage of this one chance of finding a cure for his blindness. His cloak was his warmth, his bedroll, and the receptacle for alms like coins or bread that people might offer him. His cloak was everything for the blind man, his "prized possession", and he immediately let it go!

Once cured, he followed Jesus on the way. He "followed", that's the stance of a disciple, on "the way" to Jerusalem and to Calvary. "If anyone would be my disciple, he must deny himself, take up his cross, and follow me." Bartimaeus did exactly what that rich young man we looked at two Sundays ago could not do: he left all he had behind to follow the Master; he became a true disciple.
